

Questions topic 1.9 part 2

The main diagnostic signs of cardiac arrest include....

Additional diagnostic signs of cardiac arrest include....

When assessing the consciousness of the victim, which statement is incorrect?

Respiratory assessment and circulatory assessment are carried out simultaneously within seconds

When assessing spontaneous breathing, which statement is incorrect?

Pulse assessment is carried out within seconds

On which artery is it preferable to determine the pulse?

When should the victim be moved to a stable lateral position?

When moving to a stable lateral position, which statement is incorrect?

Assessment of spontaneous breathing is carried out....