

Questions Test
Topic 1.11, part 1

1. What position is used for foreign body removing for infants?
2. The most common reason of asphyxia for adults is:
3. What are two signs of traumatic shock?
4. Finger pressing requires physical strength, so the duration of manual pressing is about:
5. In the case of complete obstruction, you should also use...
6. In the case of femur fracture blood loss is about:
7. Kinds of upper airway obstruction:
8. Average volume of blood loss when you see blood pool with clots (D 40 cm.) is:
9. If bleeding is faster than 150 ml per minute, death becomes in:
10. Average volume of blood loss in the case of hemothoraxis:
11. Ultimate bending of the extremity is not provided for the first aid in the case of:
12. What way of bleeding control is not temporary?
13. What is the simplest way to stop external arterial bleeding?
14. When it is necessary to use fist for manual pressing?
15. Choose the symptom of partial obstruction:
16. In the case of complete obstruction you should make under...hits between shoulder blades.
17. Average volume of blood loss when you see blood pool without clots (D under 1 meter) is:
18. What is the common mistake while finger pressing?

19. What sign of shock testifies to severe bleeding?
20. What is not the common symptom of blood loss?